

Artist’s Guidelines and Registration for “Inspired Art” Show
Southbury Public Library June 2018

Between now and June 1st, artists 18 years or older are invited to explore the extensive art instructional DVD collection of the Southbury Public Library, select a video and create their own artwork inspired by the instructor for inclusion in an art show during the month of June 2018 at the Gloria Cachion Gallery. The show is open to artists of all ages in Southbury and neighboring towns. There is no cost to participate.

Artwork must be created as a result of viewing a Southbury Public Library art video within the last two years. Artists may submit up to 2 framed pieces. For each piece, the submitting artist will need to specify which video inspired the resulting artwork (the artwork need not be an exact copy of the instructor’s demonstration). Artwork must be “family friendly”.

All submitted artwork must be framed with a wire (no sawtooth hangers) and ready to hang. Submitted artwork must not exceed 36" in any direction, including frame. Accepted artwork must remain hanging in show until the removal date - Friday, June 29th. Interested buyers may contact artist directly at the email/phone given by the artist. Library staff will not handle any sales.

The Southbury Library Art Committee reserves the right to decline any artwork that does not meet these guidelines.
